National Day of Prayer

Thursday, May 6th was the National Day of Prayer. There were three observances in our area. People met at the Jaycee Park in Church Hill, at the Courthouse Square in Rogersville, and at the Courthouse in Sneedville. Members and pastors from several Holston Valley Baptist Association churches attended and participated in the services.

May was a great month!! We did a really sweet Mother's Day activity at Outside the Walls. The kids designed cards for their moms. They all enjoyed it. Also, I was blessed to be at McPheeter's Bend Baptist Church in May as they highlighted abortion concerns and care for widows and orphans. I enjoyed meeting the church family and appreciated the invitation. They took donations and presented me with wonderful items for the Center. I am so thankful for their generosity. I am available anytime to share my testimony at any women's group or church and to explain how the Center works.

person meetings, but I still will do porch pick ups for the clients that prefer it. It has been so good to be able to see the children and how they are growing. I'm thankful to be moving to summertime and warmer weather!

I have also seen more traffic at the Center this month. We have moved to more in

IT'S VBS TIME!

Looking for a VBS to take your children to this summer? Check out this list of HVBA churches and when they are having their VBS. Don't forget that our office collects used VBS supplies. After your VBS is over, you can drop off any extra supplies, literature, or decorations at our office. Also, before your VBS begins, you may come by to see if we have collected any supplies that you and your church can use.
